

Changing your address

Check list

Moving overseas is an exciting and transformative experience, but it also involves a lot of logistical tasks, including changing your address. With so many things to consider and organise, it's easy to overlook important steps in the address change process. To help you stay on top of things, we've compiled a helpful checklist of essential items to address when moving overseas.

- Post Office
- Driver's Licence
- Bank and other financial institutions
- Home/car insurance provider
- Electoral Commission
- Taxation Office
- Department of Human Services: Medicare, Centrelink, child support, Veterans' Affairs etc.
- Department of Transport
- School/University/Tafe Institution
- Utilities provider including electricity & gas
- Mobile provider
- Broadband provider
- Pay TV
- Superannuation
- Friends and Family
- Healthcare
- Amazon
- Employer
-